

SSCPP and BID-Plymouth are excited to offer Free, Virtual Grant Writing Workshops for our community partners!

Just click on the date or dates that you are interested in for registration and a Zoom link will be provided.

See below for Cyndi's impressive Bio:

Wed. March 22nd @ 9-10am: Aspects of the proposal - outlines, collaboration and community need

Wed. April 26th @ 9-10am: Relationships with funders and stewardship

Tuesday, May 11th @ Noon – 1pm: Prospect Research

Wed. May 24th @ 9-10am: Grant readiness: What do organizations need to be ready to apply for grants?

Sessions will be recorded – Email Karen at kpeterston@bidplymouth.org with questions or for a recorded copy of the session(s).

Cyndi MacKenzie, Grant Professional Certified, has won over $38 million in resources with her clients. With 20 years in the field, Cyndi offers ethical services to non-profits of all sizes including prospect research, board development, strategic plan development, grant writing and management, budget creation and post-award consultation.

As a Grant Professional Approved Trainer, Cyndi provides virtual, in-person and customized training on topics ranging from grant readiness to uniform guidance compliance. Cyndi is a Grant News contributing author and six-year member of the GPA Ethics Committee. She also co-trains the GPA Next Level Course, which is a 12-month sequential training for entry level grant professionals.

Cyndi resides in Maine.

www.CyndiMacKenzie.com